[special to the Baltimore American.] POINT OF ROCKS, February 17.-This aborhood, stready noted for its lynchs, added another to the list this evening the summary hanging of Page Wallace, negro who outraged a woman near here a host time ago. The lynching happened on the Virginia side of the river, where the or the was committed; but the lynchers, though Virginians, tracked their victim on Maryland soil, and only waited till e crossed the river before visiting upon him summary vengeance for his crime.
This is the third lynching that has happened within a radius of tea miles within a year, and yet popular feeling in this locality cems very slow to condemn the lynchers, and condones the crime. The first of these three was the lynching of the negro James Carrell, on April 17, 1879, for an outrage hard Thomas, at Lickville. Sire,-For the fifth time fate has preserved you from the stroke of justice. They were five decrees dictated by the law of humanty, a law which you no longer recognize. You know our power and determination. Beware of the sixth deeree! Do you wish to be a great monarch? Do you wish all the Russian people to acclaim you and recognize you as their father? Do you wish that those who strike to-day shall become apostles instead of executioners? If you lo, then cease to be a tyrant and becon man, and render to your subjects what beongs to man by the law of nature-namely, of all persons living there have been delivered at a special office, thence they might e transmitted to their destination or not, s the case might be. Three weeks ago great uneasiness was caused by the news nat an armed and disguised matefactor had eldest children slightly burt, and his infant been arrested at the palace gates. It afterward turned out that he was one of the tshinovins of His Halesty's own chan-cery. He had gone mad, and was haunted Galveston, Texas, February 18.-A Czar and shot by the Socialists. The Russians' March on Merv.

LONDON, February 18 .- The Berlin corre pondent of the Times telegraphs as folows: It is said that General Skobeloff will ommand the Russian main army of invasien, numbering 20,000 troops, marching from Tashkend across Bokbara to Merv. with the view of operating in the rear of the Turcomans, while two other armies starting from Tehikislar and Krasnovodsk, respectively, will form a junction with him before the end of May.

Germany Won't Interfere. MILAN, February 18 .- The Perseveranza, an influential Liberal and Monarchical journal, states that the Austrian Government addressed an inquiry to Prince Bismarck as to whether Germany would oppose Austria should she ever find it necessary to make a movement hostile to Italy, and that the hancellor replied that Germany would not. The Perseveranza adds: "Austria took this step simply as a precaution against possible future contingencies."
